International DLG-Prize 2016

Dear Sir, Dear Madam,

For the 31th time the German Agricultural Society (DLG) awards the International DLG Prize in 2016. This prize, one of the most important promotion programs for junior staff and new recruits in Germany, has already been awarded to 251 honorees from 23 different countries.

We are looking for young people who are professionally active or want to be active in agriculture and food industry and who are characterized by technical skills, voluntary engagement and sociability. A very important pre-condition for a successful application is the verifiable engagement in an beneficial organization

The scholarships associated with the prize are meant to support the honorees in the process of expanding their professional knowledge and skills. In addition, we want to give young people access to the DLG and its professional work.

We would like to invite you to nominate suitable candidates for this award and to pass on the relevant information to interested persons or institutions.

Enclosed you will find the nomination form. The award guidelines as well as the application form can be received at DLG, Competence Center Agriculture, Mrs. Kerstin Häcker, Eschborner Landstraße 122, 60489 Frankfurt a.M., Germany, or under <http://www.dlg.org/dlg-preis.html> looking for "Registration documents".

Our candidate requirements are shown in the award guidelines. If you would like to propose one or more persons for the International DLG-Prize, please use the nomination form to state your nomination. The application form itself must be completed personally by the candidate. Closing date is 1 October 2015.

For further questions and information please contact me by phone +49 (0)69/247 88-347 or e-mail DLG-Preis@DLG.org.

Yours sincerely,

DLG e.V.
